TEMPORARY PERMIT (optional)

An applicant for R.N. licensure who has graduated from or completed a board-approved school of professional nursing program may be eligible for a temporary permit upon submission of a completed application (DSPS Form #2433), supporting documents, credential fee, exam fee, and temporary permit fee. To maintain eligibility, an applicant shall schedule and take the examination prior to the expiration date of the temporary permit. An applicant who has failed a licensing examination in any state may apply for admission to take the NCLEX in Wisconsin, but shall not be eligible for a temporary permit.

A temporary permit is valid for a period of 90 days or until the holder receives notification of failing the NCLEX. If an applicant fails NCLEX, the applicant is required to return the permit immediately. Failure to return the permit promptly shall, without further notice or process, result in a board order to revoke the permit. Temporary permits are non-renewable and non-refundable.

An applicant for R.N. licensure who holds a valid permit under this Temporary Permit section or Wis. Admin. Code sec. N 3.05(4)(a), may use the title "graduate nurse" or the letters "G.N." and shall not practice beyond the scope of the license the holder is seeking to obtain. The holder is required to practice under the direct supervision of a R.N. (The supervisor must be on-site and immediately available at all times.)

PLEASE NOTE: It is important to take the test, and if needed, to retest promptly. In accordance with the Board of Nursing decision in April 2004, a nursing applicant who has graduated from or completed a board-approved school of professional nursing program who does not hold a temporary permit or who has failed the exam may only continue to work as a nurse tech for up to 6 months past his/her date of graduation or completion of the program. Please go to our website, <http://dsps.wi.gov/boards/nur/pap/index.htm>, to find the position paper on the use of nurse technicians.

You may not practice as a registered nurse in Wisconsin unless you have either a permanent license or temporary permit.
